I am a senior paralegal in the corporate transactional team where I advise businesses across a wide range of sectors on corporate governance support, general corporate advice, corporate restructure, acquisitions and disposals.

I am involved at all stages of corporate M&A transactions from due diligence to completion assisting clients across various sectors such as insurance and healthcare. I head the corporate secretarial service here at Cripps working with our clients to deliver corporate governance support.

I have a keen interest in legal technology, striving for innovative ways that we can deliver the best possible legal services to our clients. I am specifically involved in the piloting and training of others in the corporate transactional team on the use of the legal technology tools we have at our disposal here at Cripps.

Areas of expertise:

- Mergers and acquisitions
