I'm a managing associate in the property dispute resolution team where clients value me for my clarity, personable style and my negotiation skills.

My role includes advising on a variety of property disputes for landowners, investors, developers, occupiers and individuals. I help my clients resolve issues by negotiation, alternative dispute resolution and litigation. My aim is to provide easily digestible advice focused on my clients' objectives at all times.

I apply logical reasoning to solve 'real world' problems and take pride in keeping a cool head to maintain focus on what the key issues are for the client.

I was recognised as an 'Associate to Watch' (Chambers UK).

Areas of expertise:

- Easements (including rights of light, covenants, nuisance and trespass)
- Landlord and tenant issues
- Business lease renewals
- Construction disputes
- Party walls

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in November 2012
- Member of the Property Litigation Association
