I am a partner in the real estate team specialising in residential development work for housebuilders, property traders and landowners.

I have extensive experience in the residential development sector gained both in private practice and “in-house” and act for national and regional housebuilders, developers, promoters and landowners.

I always aim to work collaboratively with other lawyers and professionals involved in a transaction to find solutions to meet or exceed my clients’ commercial or personal objectives.

My clients tell me they appreciate not only my legal expertise but my commercial awareness and my open approachable manner.

Areas of expertise:

- Conditional contracts
- Option agreements (short-term and strategic)
- Site assembly
- Acquisitions and site sales
- Promotion agreements
- Overage deeds
- Advice on covenants and easements
- s.106 planning obligations

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in October 1995
