I'm a partner in the employment team where clients value me for my practical, jargon-free advice and responsiveness along with my advanced negotiating skills.

With over 20 years' City experience, my role includes advising businesses, senior executives and professionals on the full range of employment matters.

I have a particular focus on owner-managed businesses and, as a fluent French speaker, handle many Anglo-French matters.

I am regularly asked to comment on employment matters on radio and in the press.

Areas of expertise:

- Senior executive terminations and boardroom disputes
- Employee/worker/partner status issues
- Settlement agreements
- Discrimination
- Whistleblowing
- Tribunal to Court of Appeal and High Court claims
- Disciplinary and regulatory investigations, defences and breaches (FCA, PRA, NHS, CQC)
- Business reorganisations
- Redundancies
- Relocations
- Cross border issues

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in September 1998

- Co-chair of French Chamber of Great Britain's HR Forum
- Member of the Employment Lawyers' Association and it's Legislative and Policy Committee consulted by the government on new legislation
