I am a partner in the real estate team providing clients with advice on selling, buying and managing their properties.

I have over 25 years' experience advising corporate clients, varying in size, as well as individuals with property interests and not for profit organisations. Much of my time is spent reviewing the background of a transaction and finding a way through the corporate rules and statutory controls that apply to a client's particular course of action.

Areas of expertise:

- Compliance with Charities Act requirements in real estate cases

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in November 1986
