

Cripps paralegal highly commended for prestigious rising star award at 15th annual ERMA's

Cripps is proud to announce that Veronica Vundi, a senior paralegal in the firm's residential estates team, has been highly commended for the rising star award at the 15th annual Enfranchisement and Right to Manage Awards (ERMAs) ceremony held on 11 July 2024.

The ERMA's, hosted at The Leonardo Royal Hotel St. Paul's, have become a cornerstone event in the industry over the past 15 years, celebrating excellence and innovation in leasehold enfranchisement and right to manage.

The rising star award recognises exceptional talent and potential within the sector. Veronica's high commendation is a testament to her outstanding performance and the positive impact she has made for clients and colleagues alike.

Anna Favre, partner in the residential estates team at Cripps, commented: "Veronica's dedication to her clients and her ability to navigate complex legal matters with insight and clarity are truly impressive. This recognition from the ERMA's is well-deserved and highlights the bright future ahead of her in this field."

On receiving the commendation, Veronica said: "I'm honoured to receive this recognition from the ERMA's. It reinforces my commitment to delivering the best possible outcomes for our clients and contributing to the success of our team at Cripps."

This accolade aligns with Cripps' commitment to nurturing exceptional talent and maintaining the highest standards of expertise in property law. It reflects the firm's ethos of combining technical excellence with a personal, pragmatic approach to meet clients' needs.
