

Cripps solidifies position as leading private wealth law firm in Chambers High Net Worth Guide 2024

---

Cripps is delighted to announce its continued recognition in the prestigious Chambers High Net Worth guide. This year's rankings reaffirm the firm's position as a leading provider of legal services to high net worth individuals and families across multiple practice areas and regions.

The guide, now in its ninth year, is a leading industry publication renowned for its rigorous research and independent rankings of top legal advisors in the private wealth sector.

The firm's private wealth disputes team remains at the forefront of the market in the South, with Myles McIntosh and Philip Youdan maintaining their rankings. Dino Sikkel has been recognised as an 'up and coming' lawyer – further highlighting the team's exceptional talent. Clients praise the team's skill in 'managing the complex interests of the beneficiaries.'

Cripps' private wealth team also maintains its strong reputation with national and regional rankings. Sources state they appreciate the team's 'ability to absorb complex information and provide robust and practical advice.' Paul Fairbairn, Kate Arnold and Jeremy Curtis maintain their rankings, and Jessica Jamieson has been duly recognised and ranked in the 2024 guide. The team's future is bright, demonstrated by Clare Savory's recognition as an 'Associate to watch'.

Finally, the firm's high value residential real estate expertise is recognised, both in London and on a national level, with a maintained ranking for Sally Firby and a new individual ranking for Anna Favre, further solidifying Cripps' reputation for delivering exceptional service to high net worth clients beyond the South East.